We Care. We Can Help.

Today's teens live in a culture of sexual confusion that does not direct them toward healthy relationship choices.

Many of them seek love in uncommitted sexual relationships that put them at risk for life altering events such as unmarried pregnancy, disease, emotional devastation and financial insecurity.

Through a multi-generational training program with fun interactive activities throughout, teens and parents (optional) in separate groups will learn:

- About their identity in Christ
- Friendship, dating and love
- Communication: Creative problem solving, decision making, negotiation, and conflict resolution
- Cultural Influences: media, drugs, alcohol, internet and texting safety
- Differences between men and women
- Consequences of teen sex
- Partner selection strategies and marriage preparation
